October 26, 2014

Feeling weary, pushed around, lost your motivation, maybe even your perspective?
The apostle Paul can help us get some of it back.

Four truths our hearts need to continue to embrace deeply

C _____ To take for oneself. Yes You!

Why me? Can you accept this?

S _____ From what? For what?

C _____ Beyond the temporary

S _____ in G _____

Different and greater than anything we have ever experienced

With this understanding...

1. _____

2. _____

WHY?

After Paul has shared all these truths and words to encourage them to press ahead, he then prays for God to take it to the next level as only He can...

1. _____ their hearts

2. _____ in good deeds

God is not into wearing us out, that is our doing, He is into lifting us up.

How are you doing? What do you need to do about it?
